SAHARA ENERGY ANNOUNCES JOINT VENTURE IN SASKATCHEWAN

CALGARY, ALBERTA, Tuesday, February 7, 2006 – Sahara Energy Ltd. ("Sahara" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has entered into a joint venture agreement with the Mosquito Grizzly Bear's Head Lean Man First Nation Band (the "Band") in Saskatchewan to exclusively identify and explore lands that may contain oil and gas potential under the Treaty Land Entitlement Agreement (the "TLE Lands"). The joint venture will continue initially for a period of three years and may be extended by agreement between the parties. In the joint venture, the Band has agreed to make available its oil and gas rights on 62,000 acres to the Company comprised of approximately 13,000 acres of TLE Lands which are available anywhere in Saskatchewan with undisposed mineral rights, approximately 14,000 acres of nominated TLE Lands currently owned by the Band in western Saskatchewan and approximately 35,000 acres of land on the Band's reserve lands. The Company will conduct oil and gas exploration and development on the 62,000 acres of lands and has agreed to provide employment, business and training opportunities to the Band pursuant to the joint venture.

Pete Boswell, President and CEO of Sahara stated "We are very pleased to enter into this exclusive joint venture business arrangement with the Mosquito Band and look forward to the complimentary business opportunities arising from identifying and exploring oil and gas prospects on the 62,000 acres held by the Band in the highly prospective area of western Saskatchewan."

Chief Kelly Bird of the Mosquito Grizzly Bear's Head Lean Man First Nation Band also stated "Our community is pleased to form a business venture with Sahara to explore for oil and gas on our lands in Saskatchewan. We anticipate substantial benefits for our people as a result of employment and training opportunities for our workforce. We are also pleased to have the assistance of Chief Negotiator, J. Albert Angus who has been involved in the development of this joint venture and we appreciate his knowledge and expertise on Indian oil and gas matters."

Sahara Energy is a newly formed junior oil and gas company focused on the acquisition, exploration and development of oil and natural gas in western Canada.
